Dear Garnet:

I do not want to bother you or to appear impatient but I would like to know if you have heard anything at all from Libertys with regard to the gloves. I sent you a note early in May to which Mr. Stroker replied on 17 May telling me that you had just gone on leave. He said in his letter that he called Galeries Lafayette, but my recollection is that you placed the order with Libertys. At any rate, I have heard nothing further and would be appreciative of any information you can give me.

I inclose herewith my check for $3.50 made out to Chief Williams which I owe him for a book purchased on my account. Please tell him my especial thanks for his courtesy. Tell him also that I wrote him a letter on 12 May asking him to see if he could buy a couple more books for me, but not hearing from him I imagine that I was too late.

Please call Colonel Zeller and thank him for his very nice letter of 18 June together with the clipping inclosed therein. Tell him also that we shall look forward to a visit from them both during their short stay in Washington.

I am getting along pretty well now at home and hope to be back at the office some time in August.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
