hes.

It is with much regret that I have to advise you that established Department of Defense policy precludes my supplying you with any photographs or publications such as you mention.

I assume that you have consulted Prof. Galland's Annotated bibliography of eryptology, which, in my opinion, is the best and most complete bibliography thus far published.

Even though I find myself unable to essist you, I hope that you will be generous enough to send me a reprint of your article when available.

Sincerely yours.
