WELCOME TO WASHINGTON

---

IT GIVES ME GREAT PLEASURE to welcome you to Washington. I hope that your visit will be most enjoyable and also beneficial to those you represent. It is our desire to make you as much "at home" as is possible. Our Entertainment Officer will be only too glad to assist you in making plans for your off duty hours.

Again let me say "Welcome to Washington."

LIEUTENANT GENERAL RALPH J. CANINE
Director, National Security Agency

TRANSPORTATION

OFFICIAL

Official transportation in connection with conference activities will be provided as necessary. Additional details will be furnished separately to cover specific requirements.

PUBLIC

Three types of transportation available to the public in Washington are street cars, buses, and taxis. Cost of street car and bus transportation is about the same. Taxicab fares are higher but the greater comfort and convenience makes the use of taxis popular, particularly with visitors to Washington. It is customary to supplement the regular fare with a gratuity of approximately ten percent.

Public transportation to the conference site may be utilized by taking the bus marked "N2" at H Street between 17th and 18th Streets, Northwest. Leave bus at Ward Circle, which is at the intersection of Massachusetts and Nebraska Avenues. Turn right (northeast) and walk approximately 500 feet along the right side of Nebraska Avenue. If travel is by taxi, instruct driver to go to 3801 Nebraska Avenue. Trolley transportation to the conference site is not convenient.

In addition to the usual round of parties and receptions, you may desire to see and do other things. The best and most current source of information for such activities as sports, the theatre, motion pictures, etc. is the Washington daily newspapers. If further assistance or advice is desired, however, please do not hesitate to call LT. Johnson, Extension 60471, who will stand ready to aid you in any way possible.
