MEMORANDUM FOR MR. GRANT MANSON

SUBJECT: Outline of British Cryptologic Organization

1. In accordance with your recent request, there is inclosed here-with (Inclosure 1) a document showing the current structure of the British cryptologic organization, together with a brief outline of the charters of the various agencies.
2. The data came from British sources and may therefore be considered accurate.
3. The current membership of the Boards, LSIB Senior and Junior, and their Committees is shown in Inclosure 2. As you probably already know, the Director-General of SIGINT, Major-General Sir Stewart G. Menzies, is being retired this coming autumn; the Director-General, GCHQ, Sir Edward Travis, is being retired on 15 April 1952, to be succeeded by Mr. Eric Jones.
4. Although Inclosure 1 contains data relative to the Cypher Policy Board probably sufficient for your purposes, more detailed data can be furnished upon request. The membership of this Board currently consists of:

Chairman: The Director-General, Government Communications Headquarters.

A nominee of the Chiefs of Staff (representing all three Fighting Services. The present representative is the Director of Signals, War Office.)

[Redacted] Permanent Secretary, The Treasury.

Secretary, [Redacted]
