Att'n Mr. W. F. Friedman

Dear Mr. Friedman:

The one present limitation on a trip to Washington is that the date of Friday, November 14, must be avoided. I could spare any three other consecutive days during the weeks of November 3 or November 10. When and if travel orders are written for me, I should like them to be so drawn that I can travel by railroad; Illinois Central between Champaign and Chicago, Baltimore and Ohio between Chicago and Washington.

As I told you, I plan to be in Washington from Tuesday evening, November 25, until late Monday afternoon, December 1. My family will accompany me. Although this is partly a vacation trip, I shall be available on any or all of the three possible working days, namely, Wednesday, Friday and Monday.

Yours sincerely,

S. S. Cairns
Head of the Department
