Dear Stevens:

Thank you for your note of 15 November. I enjoyed meeting Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and especially the interesting talk I had with him about his special work during the war. I was, of course, in the position of not being able to reciprocate and I hope that Mr. Hayes did not feel that the meeting was like traveling too much of a one way street, so far as he was concerned.

We would have liked to have seen more of them as they seemed to be very fine and interesting people. We took them around Washington a bit before visiting with us in our apartment.

You will note from the address that we have changed our location once more and for this reason I am also giving you below a couple of telephone numbers which I hope you will use in case you do come to Washington as you indicate you might around December 8 to 10.

With cordial greetings, I am -

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN

Dear Stevens:

I was much pleased to receive yesterday the photograph of the group in MI-8 of the old days. Two persons remain unidentified, and if you were unable to recall their names, I hardly know what to do except to leave them nameless. There is nobody left of that group but you, so far as I know, though Beeson may still be alive or one of the others. It is possible that Miss Morse, who is still with us, can aid and I'll try that source.

It is a very interesting photograph and I expect to frame it and hang it among those other photos of notables which adorn my office walls.

Thank you very much for the remembrance and for the nice letter you sent us recently.

Cordially yours,
