Dear Mr. Friedman:-

The ovation you received last Friday morning expressed most eloquently, the appreciation of our students and faculty for your splendid presentation on "Communications Intelligence". However, it is now my very warm privilege to tell you officially that the Air Command and Staff School is deeply grateful for your outstanding contribution to our educational program. Your appearance was, again, one of the highlights of our course.

In closing, may we repeat our sincere hope that it will be possible to include your lecture as a regular feature in our future courses.

Kindest personal regards to you and Elizabeth.
