Dear Mr. McPherson:

I am enclosing herewith, in accordance with our recent conversation, the publications which I promised to send. Inasmuch as these publications are not distributed outside the Agency except under circumstances such as the present one, I shall have to ask that you restrict their use in accordance with the security regulations applicable to SCAG. Will you be so good as to sign the enclosed receipt and return it to me at your earliest convenience?

May I take this opportunity to thank you for your attendance at the recent conference, and to say that I feel certain that SCAG will be able to contribute much to the solution of certain problems confronting us. We shall look forward to seeing you at the next meeting on 10 July.

Sincerely yours,
