MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR, GCHQ

SUBJECT: UKUSA COMINT Relations with [redacted]

1. Reference is made to your memorandum DGC/4228, dated 29 March 1954. In view of your comments on the proposed extension of US COMINT relations with [redacted] and the USCIB reaction to your [redacted] request, it appears clear that the time has come for a general discussion of our [redacted]

2. I know you share my feelings on this subject and I am pleased to inform you that USCIB has just transmitted a formal proposal to LSIB for a US - UK conference to consider the entire problem. I think it appropriate, therefore, to defer comment on the proposals in your memorandum at this time, inasmuch as our COMINT arrangements with [redacted] will doubtless be included on the agenda for the proposed conference.
