MEMORANDUM FOR THE MEMBERS OF USCIB:

Subject: Negotiations for

1. At a special meeting of USCIBEC, held on 15 September 1954, the enclosed message was presented by the Chairman as a matter requiring immediate discussion and prompt action. He explained that the request in the message was based upon USCIB approval (USCIB 30/39) of an earlier proposal on the above subject (USCIB 30/33, dated 29 July 1953).

2. The request in question opened a general discussion of all aspects of U.S. relations with

In an effort to determine the precise nature of a reply to the U.S. Charge in (DURBROW) the following points were raised and discussed. (The State Department member informed the Committee that a noncommittal interim reply had already been sent to allay the immediate urgency.)

a. While the originally sought bases in would still be useful and desirable, the actual need for them has diminished in view of the location of other U.S. facilities in the Mediterranean area.

b. In view of a., above, there is a feeling, particularly on the part of the Director NSA that the desirability of establishing would be outweighed by any arrangement which would require the extension of the provisions of paragraph 4 of Appendix "P".

c. The undesirability of disturbing the existing beneficial relationship between CIA and the degree of effect upon these relations which would result from denial of the instant request.

d. The possible effect of a withdrawal of our request for intercept bases upon other negotiations for base rights in

f. Consideration of the fact that the situation involves primarily a question of serving military needs.
