

BORIS HAGELIN

Sundsvik Sept 4, 60.

Dear Will,

I was happy to have your letter of Aug 25 - as it was quite some time since I heard from you last. That I should really have written myself, after my operation, so that you could be sure of my return to life.

It has been a rather bad summer, in one thing the weather, and then more than a month ago I caught a cold including some unknown virus, so I am still not 100% ill.

We plan however to leave to sea on the 18th of

This month,
 To and the family spent the summer with us, and we were very happy to have them. They were with us here in Elmwood, also in Sandhamp and Fighda.
 I made a trip with To and Emma on my new motorsailer "Astute" from Helsingfors to Sandhamp in July.
 Axel Wilander had sailed it to the land. It was fun but rather strenuous.
 I would very much like to have a copy of your Casanova article, please send it to me.
 Now let's hope that the Berlin crisis will be resolved, so that we can see Elizabeth and you yourself in June!
 In the meantime affectionate regards to you both from Anne & Fred -
